

Nevada Advisory Commission on Mentoring Commission Member Interview Tool

Introductory Questions

- What has worked well?
- What needs to be improved?
- What is your understanding of the work that the commission is charged to accomplish?
- Structural Frame: What type of activities do you envision as a function of NACM?
- Symbolic Frame: What does success with NACM activities look like?
- Political Frame: How does your political vision support the concept of a state-wide mentoring program?
- Human Resource Frame: What specific individuals or organizations affiliated with your political vision will commit to NACM long-range goals?

This tool will be used with each one of the NACM member's introductory phone calls. The information gathered will be examined for common themes toward category development (qualitative data). The categories that emerge will add-value to discussion regarding the primary functions of the NACM.
