Private School Analysis

School Name: Candil Hall Academy, Clark County

Background: Candil Hall Academy is a family owned, private school that welcomes infants, toddlers, preschoolers, and kindergarteners through fifth graders and is dedicated to the establishment of a learning foundation in young children that will create a lifelong love for and desire to learn more. At Candil Hall, small classes (20 total) and effective instruction combine to create the best possible learning environment for a child's education.

Each student is unique, endowed with gifts and talents that are complemented with a strong academic foundation while at Candil Hall Academy. Candil Hall believes that a strong moral, emotional, physical, and patriotic core is essentially intertwined within the academic foundation. Candil Hall's mission is to build this core through individualized instruction that challenges and stretches every child while safeguarding them in their journey as a life-long learner and decision maker.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the State Board approve the renewal licensing of Candil Hall Academy for a license for two years from August 1, 2021, through August 31, 2023. Candil Hall Academy has complied with all statutory and regulatory requirements.
