Notice required by NRS 233B.064: Upon adoption of any regulation, the agency, if requested to do so by an interested person, either before adoption or within 30 days thereafter, will issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption and incorporate therein its reason for overruling the consideration urged against its adoption.

PROPOSED REGULATION OF THE COMMISSION ON PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS IN EDUCATION

LCB File No. R166-22

August 31, 2022

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets [~~omitted material~~] is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: § 1, NRS 391.019 and 391.021; §§ 2 and 3, NRS 391.019.

A REGULATION relating to education; revising provisions relating to requirements to obtain a license; revising provisions relating to requirements to obtain certain endorsements; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires the Commission on Professional Standards in Education to adopt regulations prescribing the qualifications for licensing teachers and other educational personnel. (NRS 391.019) Existing law also requires the Commission to adopt regulations governing examinations for the initial licensing of teachers and other educational personnel. (NRS 391.021)

Existing regulations require an applicant for a license to pass a competency test in basic reading, writing and mathematics but exempt an applicant from passing such a competency test if the applicant provides documentation or evidence of certain accomplishments that were completed within the 5 years immediately preceding the date on which the application was submitted. Existing regulations also exempt an applicant from passing a competency test in the area for which the applicant is seeking an endorsement if the applicant provides documentation or evidence of certain accomplishments that were completed within the 5 years immediately preceding the date on which the application was submitted. (NAC 391.036) Section 1 of this regulation: (1) extends from 5 years to 10 years the time period within which any such accomplishments must have been completed; and (2) exempts an applicant for a license from passing such a competency test if the applicant completed the ACT or SAT college admissions examination with a certain passing score within the 10 year period.

Existing regulations require the Superintendent of Public Instruction to issue a business and industry endorsement in certain specific program areas. (NAC 391.420) Section 2 of this regulation authorizes the Superintendent of Public Instruction to issue to an applicant who holds a license with only one or more business and industry endorsements an endorsement: (1) to teach advanced computer science or introductory computer science; (2) in cultural competency or as a specialist in cultural competency; (3) in English language acquisition and development or as a specialist in English language acquisition and development; or (4) as a specialist or as a professional specialist in social, emotional and academic development.

Existing regulations outline requirements to receive a business and industry endorsement. (NAC 391.425) Section 3 of this regulation authorizes a person who holds a business and industry endorsement or career and technical education endorsement to receive an additional business and industry endorsement if the person: (1) submits to the Department of Education a Workforce Competency Credential issued by the National Occupational Competency Testing Institute, or its successor organization, related to the area of endorsement for which the person is applying; or (2) provides to the Department proof that the person has taught for at least 2 years in a career and technical education program and that the person holds a recognized certification from the industry or field for which the person is applying for the endorsement. Section 3 also exempts a person who is applying for such an additional endorsement from requirements to have a certain amount of credit or professional development hours to renew a business and industry endorsement.

Section 1. NAC 391.036 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.036 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, paragraph (h) of subsection 1 of NRS 391.019, NAC 391.0545, paragraph (a) of subsection 9 of NAC 391.0896, subsection 7 of NAC 391.0897, paragraph (b) of subsection 3 of NAC 391.233, subsection 3 of NAC 391.276, paragraph (b) of subsection ~~3~~ 4 of NAC 391.425 and subsection 6 of NAC 391.436, an applicant who applies for:

(a) A license must pass a competency test that has been approved by the Commission, at the level of competence specified by the Commission, in:

- (1) Basic reading, writing and mathematics;
- (2) The principles and methods of teaching; and
- (3) The subject matter of the area of endorsement on the license or the area of endorsement necessary for the applicant's area of assignment.

(b) An additional endorsement on a license held by the applicant must pass a competency test that has been approved by the Commission, at the level of competence specified by the Commission, in the subject matter of the area of endorsement for which the applicant is applying.

2. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may exempt an applicant from any of the tests required by subsection 1 if the applicant:

(a) Submits to the Department evidence that he or she:

(1) Has retired from teaching in this State;

(2) Held a special license, a license to teach elementary or secondary education, a license to teach special education, a license to teach pupils in a program of early childhood education or a license to teach middle school or junior high school education, which:

(I) Has expired within the year immediately preceding the date on which his or her application was submitted;

(II) Was free from any conditions that the applicant pass a competency test; and

(III) Authorized the applicant to teach in the same grade level and subject area for which he or she is applying to receive a license;

(3) Was required, for the issuance of the applicant's expired license, to complete courses of study and experience which are substantially equivalent to the courses of study and experience required for the issuance of the license for which he or she is applying; and

(4) Otherwise satisfies the requirements for the issuance of a license;

(b) Submits to the Department evidence that the applicant has passed, as part of a teacher education program approved by a state and offered through a regionally accredited college or university, competency examinations equivalent to those required of the applicant by subsection 1, as determined by the Department; or

(c) Submits to the Department evidence that the applicant holds a license to teach issued by another state which is acceptable to the Department for purposes of reciprocity.

3. An applicant is exempt from the requirement to pass a competency test in basic reading, writing and mathematics if the applicant submits to the Department:

(a) Official documentation which indicates that he or she passed, within the ~~5~~ 10 years immediately preceding the date on which his or her application was submitted and at the level of competency specified by the Commission:

(1) The “Praxis Core Academic Skills for Educators” in reading, mathematics and writing, prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service; or

(2) A test of basic skills that is determined by the Department to be equivalent to the test prescribed by subparagraph 1; ~~or~~

(b) Evidence that the applicant has:

(1) Received a master’s or more advanced degree from a regionally accredited college or university; and

(2) Completed, within the ~~5~~ 10 years immediately preceding the date on which his or her application was submitted, the “Graduate Record Examinations,” prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service, or its equivalent, and received a score which was at or above the midpoint of the score range in effect at the time the examination was administered ~~H~~; or

(c) Official documentation which indicates that the applicant completed, within the 10 years immediately preceding the date on which his or her application was submitted:

(1) The ACT, administered by ACT, Inc., with a combined score of at least 21; or

(2) The SAT, administered by the Educational Testing Service, with a combined score of at least 1100.

4. An applicant is exempt from the requirement to pass a competency test in the principles and methods of teaching if he or she:

(a) Submits to the Department official documentation which indicates that the applicant passed, at the level of competency specified by the Commission, the “Principles of Learning and Teaching Test” prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service; or

(b) Is applying for a license with an endorsement in an area for which training in the principles and methods of teaching is not required.

5. An applicant is exempt from the requirement to pass a competency test in the subject matter of the area of endorsement if he or she:

(a) Submits to the Department official documentation which indicates that the applicant passed, within the ~~5~~ 10 years immediately preceding the date on which his or her application was submitted and at the level of competency specified by the Commission, the competency test in that subject matter;

(b) Is applying for a license or endorsement in an area for which no competency tests have been approved by the Commission;

(c) Is applying for an endorsement to teach pupils who have speech and language impairments and submits to the Department official documentation which indicates that he or she has received a certificate of clinical competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association; or

(d) Is applying for an endorsement in family and consumer sciences and submits to the Department official documentation which indicates that the applicant satisfactorily completed the “Family and Consumer Sciences Composite Examination,” prepared and administered by the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences.

6. An applicant who fails to comply with the provisions of this section may not apply for a renewable license.

Sec. 2. NAC 391.420 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.420 1. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall issue to a qualified applicant a business and industry endorsement for a specific program area in:

~~1-1~~ (a) Any program of career and technical education set forth in NAC 389.803.
