Reason to Serve: I am interested in serving on the State Public Charter School Authority Board because I have a heart for the people and education. Within these two programs I focus on the children and the parents to ensure that the children are receiving a quality education, comprehension strategies, and bonding activities for home and school. I am the Creative Community Director For The Las Vegas Chapter: Sparkle Pink at the New Beginning Community Support Center. In this program I am responsible for the parent connections. The parent connection consists of classes that teaches communication strategies, bonding techniques, developmentally appropriate skills and milestones, positive praise and play, balanced discipline, and structure.
