READING LITERATURE (RL)

KEY IDEAS AND DETAILS

RL.4.1. Refer to details and examples in a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.

RL.4.2. Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text; summarize the text.

RL.4.3. Describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., a character's thoughts, words, or actions).

CRAFT AND STRUCTURE

RL.4.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including those that allude to significant characters found in mythology (e.g., Herculean).

Example: After reading a narrative/Literary text, students explain the meaning of critical vocabulary words in context of the grade-level text, particularly those rooted in mythology, such as chronology and narcissism.

RL.4.5. Explain major differences between poems, drama, and prose, and refer to the structural elements of poems (e.g., verse, rhythm, meter) and drama (e.g., casts of characters, settings, descriptions, dialogue, stage directions) when writing or speaking about a text.

RL.4.6. Compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations.

INTEGRATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS

RL.4.7. Make connections between the text of a story or drama and a visual or oral presentation of the text, identifying where each version reflects specific descriptions and directions in the text.

Example: Students could compare and contrast a narrative version of a text with the accompanying illustrations of a text. Students could also compare and contrast a written narrative of a next with a recording audio version of the same text, connecting how the presenter used the written words to incorporate phrasing and expression into their fluent reading.

RL.4.8. (Not applicable to literature)

RL.4.9. Compare and contrast the treatment of similar themes and topics (e.g., opposition of good and evil) and patterns of events (e.g., the quest) in stories, myths, and traditional literature from different cultures.

RANGE OF READING AND LEVEL OF TEXT COMPLEXITY

RL.4.10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poetry, in the grades 4–5 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.

Planning Notes [RL]NOTE: Multiple standards can be taught in the same lesson!*Standards selected from this section:*Other standards that could be taught in conjunction with Reading Literature standards:*How can other ELA and/or other content standard(s) be integrated with the standard(s) selected from this section?*Notes for implementation:

READING INFORMATIONAL (RI)*KEY IDEAS AND DETAILS

RI.4.2. Determine the main idea of a text and explain how it is supported by key details; summarize the text.

RI.4.3. Explain events, procedures, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text, including what happened and why, based on specific information in the text.

Example: Students are asked to refer to the text as they explain how specific details within the text are related. Students use the informational text to respond to questions such as: “What specific information or key ideas explain the main idea or event in the text? If I had to choose one specific piece of information from each page/section that best explains what or why something happens, what would it be?”

CRAFT AND STRUCTURE

RI.4.4. Determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words or phrases in a text relevant to a grade 4 topic or subject area.

RI.4.6. Compare and contrast a firsthand and secondhand account of the same event or topic; describe the differences in focus and the information provided.

INTEGRATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS

RI.4.7. Interpret information presented visually, orally, or quantitatively (e.g., in charts, graphs, diagrams, time lines, animations, or interactive elements on Web pages) and explain how the information contributes to an understanding of the text in which it appears.

RI.4.8. Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text.

RI.4.9. Integrate information from two texts on the same topic in order to write or speak about the subject knowledgeably.

RANGE OF READING AND LEVEL OF TEXT COMPLEXITY

RI.4.10. By the end of year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, in the grades 4–5 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.
