

Nevada Department of Education's Annual Indian Education Summit

Save the Date

Thursday, March 26 & Friday, March 27

Summit location: University of Nevada, Reno,
Joe Crowley, 4th Floor

Igniting Change: Improving outcomes for American Indian students in Nevada.

The Nevada Department of Education (NDE) will lead a collaborative summit bringing together Nevada tribes and educators from early learning, K-12 school districts, and postsecondary education across the state to reflect on shared goals, explore innovative solutions, and strategize ways to leverage resources to amplify student voices and drive collective action.

Register Here

Registration Fee: $125

Registration Deadline: March 6, 2026 Late

Registration Fee: $150

For questions regarding registration, the payment process, or ADA assistance, please contact indianeducation@doe.nv.gov

<https://forms.gle/mdvdxhRPfL6QDZGN9>

We want to be included in decision-making by having meaningful ongoing conversations with school districts that serve our students.

-NV Tribal Leader, 2024 NDE American Indian Education Summit

The Nevada Department of Education (NDE) works every single day to support students, families, teachers, principals, and administrators throughout our great state to give students the tools they need to build a home, a life, and a future. Our responsibility, in partnership with 28 tribal governments, bands, and communities located on 31 Indian reservations and colonies and 18 districts, is to realize this vision for American Indian students. We strive to achieve this through collaborative decision making, strategic investment of resources, and a commitment to continuously improve outcomes.

