

AGENDA ITEM #7

The intent of this regulation is to remove the special education course work from NAC 391.045 as this requirement is already included in the initial preparation program training for early childhood and elementary AND move the required Parent Involvement and Family Engagement (PIFE) course from a provision on an initial license to a renewal requirement if the applicant did not already complete an approved course at any time prior to application for renewal. The special education and PIFE course changes will comply with Senate Bill 442 (2023). Note: NAC 391.045 has not yet been codified from R076-19.

Additionally, the intent is to add the special education course work to the middle (NAC 391.111) and secondary (NAC 391.120) initial prep program licensure requirements that was removed from NAC 391.045. The special education course work was also included in the K-12 Art (NAC 391.215) and K-12 Music (NAC 391.270) licenses as they are outside of middle and secondary license regulations. Note: NAC 391.111 is currently pending final adoption under R119-22 and NAC 391.120 is currently pending final adoption under R119-22 and R165-22.
