

Nevada's Definition of Family Engagement

Shared
Responsibility

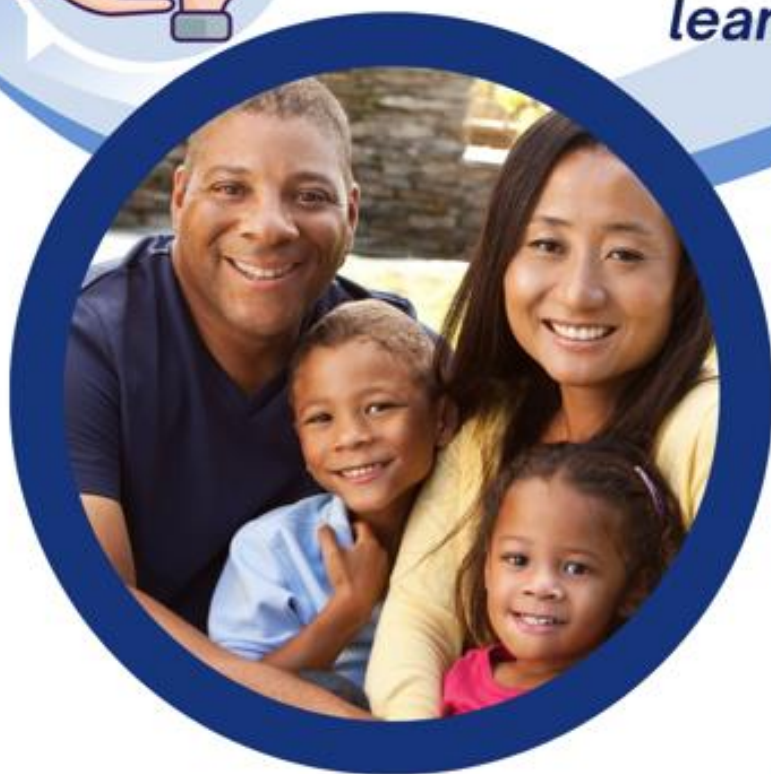

Equitable
Access

Family engagement is a joint partnership involving families, communities, and schools ensuring equitable access to necessary resources for successful collaboration in children's development for education and lifelong learning.

Work
Together

Lifelong Learning

Informed by Nevada families, educators, and community members

Scan the QR code for family and community resources