

Agenda-at-a-Glance

Igniting Change: the Path to Collaboration, Advocacy, & Leadership
Focusing on innovative strategies to amplify student voices and inspire collective action, from our youngest learners to post-secondary students.
Empowering all our students in Nevada while prioritizing self-care.

Thursday March 27, 2025

8:00am	Registration Opens
9:00am - 12:00pm	General Session & Workshop A&B
12:00pm - 1:45pm	Working Lunch
1:45pm - 4:30pm	Workshop A&B
4:30pm - 5:00pm	Final Session

Friday March 28, 2025

8:00am	Registration Opens
8:30am - 12:30pm	General Session & Workshop C&D
12:30pm - 2:00pm	Working lunch & Final Session

What to expect

- A collaborative summit uniting our Tribal Community, and educators from schools and districts across Nevada.
- Together, we will reflect on shared goals, explore innovative solutions, and strategize on how to leverage resources effectively.
- Our focus will be on implementing creative strategies to amplify student voices, and drive collective action from early education through post-secondary students.

Who should attend the Indian Education Summit Days on March 27-28, 2025?

This event is for school or district educators and administrators, tribal entities or stakeholders, parents, higher education staff and faculty, and students; any professional who has an inherit interest in the student academic achievement of Native students.

Where is the event held?

The event will take place at the Joe Crowley Student Union, 4th Floor, at the University of Nevada, Reno.

Dress warm - the conference organizers do not have access to the thermostat.

Bring your water bottle.

Lunch served daily.

Snacks, coffee, and tea will be served daily.

Parking is in the West Stadium Parking Complex. Parking is free with paid registration.

A parking code will be sent after you have registered.

Registration QR Code

Registration Cost: $125.00
Childcare (limited space): free from the Washoe County School District's Family-School Partnerships

Child Care Interest Form QR Code

